

CEN CAL CALIFORNIA DIVING & AQUATIC STUDIES SCHOLARSHIP

To promote a better understanding of the environments we so love to explore, the Central California Council of Diving Clubs, known as Cen Cal, is offering the nineteenth annual California Diving & Aquatic Studies Scholarship. This award was previously named the Seaviews/Cen Cal Marine Science Scholarship.

The award of $1,000 is to support a student engaging in studies of underwater habitats. Aquatic related programs in the disciplines of biology, physical sciences, marine education, maritime archaeology, historical and social aspects of marine resources or the science of diving are relevant for consideration.
